STARTING POINT

Musée Alexandre Louis Martin

Place de Carnières 52,
7141 Carnières

ROUTE DESCRIPTION

Your walk starts in Place de Carnières: the home of the museum of Alexandre Louis Martin, a 19th century painter. In addition to the permanent collection on display, the museum also organises temporary exhibitions. You then set off and make your way to the site of the Royal Museum of Mariemont and its magnificent park. What awaits you is an expanse of green space (45 hectares), centuries-old trees, exotic species, ponds and flower beds. The site also accommodates the famous «Les Bourgeois de Calais» sculpture of Auguste Rodin. The Royal Museum of Mariemont is located in the heart of this park. Visit the biggest museum in Wallonia for an unforgettable experience as you embark on a journey through time to discover various cultures, in a place where the treasures of the greatest civilisations of the world stand alongside the very best that our region has to offer. Then hop on your bike to Domaine de Claire-Fontaine. While away the time in the Leisure Centre which sits in a natural setting and boasts a wide range of outdoor activities! Take part in the numerous aquatic activities on the lake or take a stroll along the surrounding footpaths. There is also something for the thrill seekers in the form of the aerial assault course
